

Detailed Table of Contents

NoamWasserman.com

Part I: Introduction & Pre-founding

Chapter 1: Introduction.....	3
Core Concepts and Arguments	6
• Short-term versus Long-term Consequences	10
• Natural Biases: The Perils of Passion, Optimism, and Instinct.....	10
• Divergences among Can, Do, and Should	11
Wealth versus Control: A Closer Look.....	12
Unsolved Puzzles.....	15
10,000 Founders Strong.....	19
Introduction to the Principle Case Studies	21
 Chapter 2: Career Dilemmas	 27
Should I Found?	30
• Early Influences	30
• Founder Motivations: The Centrality of Wealth and Control	32
When Should I Found?	36
• Reasons to Wait	36
○ Building Human Capital	36
▪ Work and School.....	37
▪ Managerial Experience	38
▪ Functional Backgrounds.....	39
▪ Industry Knowledge	40
▪ Working in Small versus Big Companies	43
▪ Harnessing Nontraditional Experiences.....	46
○ Building Social and Financial Capital.....	47
• The Perils of Waiting.....	48
○ Stronger Career Handcuffs	49
○ Lower “Fitness to Found”	50
○ Stronger Family Handcuffs.....	50
• Developments That Release the Handcuffs.....	52
○ An Employer’s Slowing Growth	53
○ An Employer’s Change in Strategy.....	53
○ Employment Shocks.....	53
○ Financial Shocks	54
○ Family Developments	54
How Can I Dispassionately Evaluate My Idea?	55
• Evaluating Ideas	55
• Clouding Judgment: Passion and Optimism	58
Closing Remarks	59
• “I Have Everything But an Idea!”	63
• “But I’m Not Armed for Battle Yet!”	63
• “But I’m Going to Hurt My Family!”	64
• “My Handcuffs Have Gotten Too Strong!”	66

Part II: Founding Team Dilemmas

Introduction	69
Overview of Chapters	70
Chapter 3: The Solo-versus-Team Dilemma	73
Reasons to Go Solo	73
The Argument for Cofounders	76
How Many Cofounders?	81
The Broader Context	82
Symbolic Founders versus Hires	83
Closing Remarks	85
Chapter 4: Relationship Dilemmas: Flocking Together and Playing With Fire	89
Founding Team Homogeneity versus Diversity	90
• Short-term Benefits of Homogeneity	91
• Longer-term Risks of Homogeneity	93
• Tangible versus Intangible Differences	96
• A Recurring Metaphor	99
Founding Team Outcomes
• Friends and Family are Less Stable	99
• Cofounding with Past Coworkers: Less Endearing but More Enduring	102
Taking Relationship Risks versus Creating Firewalls	105
• The Playing-with-Fire Gap: Damage versus Avoidance	105
o Damage If the Social Relationship Blows Up	105
o Avoiding the “Elephant in the Room”	106
o The Playing-with-Fire Gap	109
• Reducing the Gap: Forcing Sensitive Discussions and Creating Firewalls	110
Closing Remarks	112
Chapter 5: Role Dilemmas: Positions and Decision Making	117
Executive Titles: Who Wants Them?	119
Executive Titles: Who Gets Them?	121
Overlapping Roles versus Division of Labor	124
Decision-Making Approaches: Egalitarian versus Hierarchical	129
• The Benefits of Egalitarianism	130
• When Are Founders Likely to Choose Egalitarianism?	130
• The Problems of Egalitarianism	132
• Rocky Transitions from Egalitarianism to Hierarchy	134
• Balancing the Best of Egalitarianism and Hierarchy	135
Duos versus Trios	136
One Founder on the Board versus Multiple Founders	138
Roles and Wealth-versus-Control Motivations	141
Closing Remarks	142
• Avoiding Conflict	142
• Underestimating “Title Inertia”	142
• Inflating Titles	143

• Wanting Allies on the Board	143
• Ignoring Incompatible Motivations	144
Chapter 6: Reward Dilemmas: Equity Splits and Cash Compensation.....	145
“War” Over Equity Splits	145
When to Split	147
Criteria For Equity Splits.....	150
• Past contributions	151
○ The Idea Premium.....	151
○ Capital Contribution.....	153
• Opportunity Cost	154
• Future Contributions.....	155
• Founder Motivations and Preferences	156
Equal versus Unequal Splits	157
• A Threshold of Psychological Pain versus Financial Gain.....	159
• “We’re a Team”	160
• Financing Outcomes: Quick Handshakes versus Thoughtful Equal Splits.....	161
• 51% versus 50%	162
Formal versus Informal Splits.....	163
Static versus Dynamic Splits: The Perils of Setting Things in Stone	165
• A Template for Founders	168
• Terms, Contingencies, and Trust	171
• Protecting Yourself from Your Cofounders: Self Imposed Vesting.....	174
• High Attraction, High Motivation.....	177
Cash Compensation	177
• Salary Equality versus Inequality	178
• The Founder Discount – Dedication or Exploitation.....	179
Closing Remarks	182
Chapter 7: The Three Rs System: Alignment and Equilibrium	186
Beyond the Individual Decisions: Context and Linkages.....	186
Linking Relationships and Roles	189
• Founding with Friends and Family	189
• Founding with Coworkers	190
• Founding with Strangers	191
Linking Relationships and Rewards.....	193
Linking Roles and Rewards.....	197
Closing Remarks	199
• Communication.....	200
• Change	200
• Inertia.....	201

Part III: Beyond the Founding Team: Hires and Investors

Introduction	205
Overview of Chapters	207
Chapter 8: Hiring Dilemmas: The Right Hires at the Right Time	209
Relationships	212
• The Founder-CEO's Hires versus Investors' Hires	209
• Casting a Wide Net versus Getting Cultural Fit.....	214
• The Playing-with-Fire Gap: The Risk of Hiring Friends and Family	216
Roles	217
• When to Create New Positions?	218
• When Should I Upgrade Existing Positions?	222
• Whom to Hire When?	224
○ Generalists versus Specialists: Option Value versus Depth	224
○ Small-Company vs. Big Company Backgrounds: "He Can't Actually Build the Crank" ...	227
○ Experienced versus Inexperienced Hires	229
Rewards	232
• Cash Compensation	233
○ The Ups and Downs of Salaries	233
○ High versus Low Bonus-Sensitivity.....	236
○ Gender Gaps: Male versus Female Compensation.....	237
• C-level versus VP-level Equity Stakes.....	240
○ Locking on the Golden Handcuffs.....	242
• Cash-versus-Equity Seesaw	244
Closing Remarks	245
Chapter 9: Investor Dilemmas: Adding Value, Adding Risk	249
Enter the Investor	251
Self-funding	252
When Investors Become Desirable	253
Accessible but Risky: Money from Friends and Family.....	257
• Motivation to Take Friends-and-Family Money: Comfort, Desperation, or Ignorance?	258
• "Burning the Boats": Productive Motivation or "Entrepreneurial Suicide"?.....	260
High Variance: Angel Investors	262
Strikeout or Home Run: Venture Capitalists.....	267
• Benefits of Venture Capital.....	269
○ Financial Capital	269
○ Social Capital: Connections and Credibility	271
○ Human Capital: Guidance and Mentoring, Both Informally and Through the Board of Directors.....	272
• Costs of Venture Capital: Giving Up Ownership	278
○ Changes in Overall Ownership	278
○ Liquidation Preferences: Giving Up "Small" Exits	280
○ Investors Forcing Ownership Shifts within the Founding Team	283
• Costs of Venture Capital: Losing Control of Decision Making	284
○ Board Control.....	285

○ Managing the Board: The Middle of the “Hourglass”	288
○ Effects of Board Formalization.....	289
○ Staging as a Control Mechanism.....	290
Divergent Paths: Wealth versus. Control with Investors	291
Closing Remarks	293
Chapter 10: Failure, Success, and Founder-CEO Succession	297
Triggers for Change	300
• Voluntary Succession	301
• Fired for Failure.....	302
• The Paradox of Entrepreneurial Success	303
• Succeeding at Product Development.....	304
• Succeeding at Fund-Raising	307
• Implications for Succession.....	309
Searching for a Successor	310
• Sources of Successors	310
• Founder Involvement.....	312
• Successor Dissimilarity	314
After the Succession	316
• “A Tidal Change”	316
• The Replaced Founder’s New Position	317
• Keeping the Founder: High Risk, High Return?.....	320
• Smoothing the Transition: The Board’s Role	321
• Gaining the Predecessor’s Support: The New CEO’s Actions	324
Closing Remarks	326

Part IV: Conclusion

Chapter 11: Wealth-versus-Control Dilemmas.....	331
A Central Dilemma: Wealth versus Control	333
• Divergent Outcomes: Rich versus King	337
• Using the Wealth-versus-Control Lens to Revisit Evan Williams's Decisions	340
• Other Alternatives: Second-tier Resources.....	343
• Other Alternatives: Hybrid Paths	344
“Better” and “Worse” Outcomes.....	346
• The Core Founder's View: Self-Knowledge and Decision Making	346
• The Views of Other Participants: The Need to Assess the Founder	349
Can Founders Change?	352
Other Choices that Affect Rich versus King Outcomes	354
• Preferred Rate of Startup Growth	355
• Capital Intensity	355
• Boundaries of the Firm	356
Increasing the Chances of Achieving the “Entrepreneurial Ideal”	356
• Increasing Pre-founding Resource Endowments	356
○ Human Capital	357
○ Social Capital	357
○ Financial Capital	358
• Anticipating Trouble	359
• Getting Closer Each Time: Serial Entrepreneurs	360
Implications for “Unsolved Puzzles”	361
• Is the Missing “Private Equity Premium” Really a “Puzzle”?	361
• Founder Power?.....	361
• Stewards Rather Than Agents?.....	362
Boundary Conditions and Opportunities for Future Research	363
• Testing Boundary Conditions.....	363
○ Specific to High-Potential Startups?	364
○ Specific to the United States?.....	365
• Opportunities for Future Research.....	366
○ Beyond Wealth and Control: The Effects of Other Motivations.....	366
○ Beyond First-Time Founders: Serial Entrepreneurship.....	367
○ Beyond Founders, Hires, and Investors: Other Potential Participants	367
○ Where to Found, Exits, & Other Important Dilemmas	368
○ Other Outcomes: Realized Exits and Risk Differences	369
Closing Remarks	370
Appendix 11-1 – A Thought Experiment: Would a Hybrid Path Be Better?	372
Appendix 11-2 – A Model of Founder Decisions.....	374
Appendix 11-3 – Exit Dilemmas: Which Way Out?	376
• Should We Sell Our Startup?.....	376
○ Reasons Not to Sell	377
○ Reasons to Sell	378
○ Eroding Prospects for the Startup	379
○ Attractive Post-Acquisition Strategies	380
○ How Should We Structure the Sale?.....	381

• Should We Go Public?	383
• Divergence within the Team	385
Acknowledgments	387
Appendix A: Quantitative Data	391
Survey Process	391
Demographics of Respondents	395
Survey Contents	396
Appendix B: Summary of Startups and People	403
Table B.1: Table of Startups	404
Table B.2: Table of People	413
Notes	425
Bibliography	451
Index	467