Description

Company Description Northpond Ventures is a science-driven venture capital firm headquartered in Bethesda, Maryland, right next to the Bethesda metro stop (DC area). Our mission is to build a better tomorrow. Investments are focused on life sciences, technology, and affiliated industries. We have $500 million committed capital and typically lead financings and take board seats. We officially launched May 1.

Northpond is a small team (by design) looking for A/A+ players who want to make a strong contribution to scientific innovation and humanity. We are at the intersection of science, entrepreneurship, and innovation. Some of our team attributes include: excellence, teamwork, partnership, positivity/optimism, courage, and humility.

We are seeking a motivated and dynamic Life Sciences Venture Principal to join our investment team. In addition to a belief in our above mission and team attributes, a PhD in a relevant scientific field from a top program is a requirement for applicants.
